A music festival in town. Checklist 'Festival website'

Name: _____

KEY INFORMATION	✓	Feedback
The website includes a clear and recognizable logo or image representing the festival.
The dates and venue of the festival are clearly established.
The genres and lineup of the festival are clearly listed.
Information about the facilities are included.
Information about tickets and packages is provided, outlining any special discounts and including how to purchase them.
There are sustainability initiatives shown.
There is a clear emphasis to engage with the local community and to promote cultural diversity.
The contact information of the organisers is provided.
The rules and regulations of the festival are outlined.
The website is easy to navigate and the menu items are logically organised.
The layout is attractive, including images and videos.
The website is interactive, including features like a map, timetable or social media integration and/or opportunities for users to engage with the content, such as commenting or sharing.
The website is accessible to individuals with disabilities.
The website does not contain grammar mistakes.
The website does not contain vocabulary mistakes.
The website shows that the student knows how to use the digital tool effectively.		