

RUBRIC TO ASSESS a COMIC STRIP

Student's name: _____

	1 (Needs Improvement)	2 (Developing)	3 (Achieved)	4 (Exceeds Expectations)
Content & Creativity	The story is confusing or incomplete. The ideas for the superpowers and the search are not clear or are too simple.	The story is basic. Superpowers are used, but not very creatively. The search for the friend is shown, but without many details.	The story is clear, interesting, and easy to follow. The comic strip uses the superpowers creatively to solve the problem.	The story is very creative, original, and exciting. The comic strip uses the superpowers in clever and surprising ways to find their friend.
Grammar: Past Simple Verbs	Few or no simple past verbs are used. There are many mistakes in verb conjugation.	Some simple past verbs are used. There are mistakes with irregular verbs.	Most regular and irregular simple past verbs are used correctly. There are only a few minor errors.	A wide variety of simple past verbs are used correctly and with confidence. There are no grammatical mistakes.
Vocabulary & Spelling	Vocabulary is very simple and repetitive. There are many spelling mistakes that make the text difficult to read.	Vocabulary is basic. There are some spelling mistakes, but they do not prevent understanding.	Vocabulary is appropriate for the story. Spelling is mostly correct, with only a few minor errors.	Vocabulary is rich and varied. Spelling is impeccable, making the comic strip easy and enjoyable to read.
Illustrations & Visual Coherence	The drawings are difficult to understand or do not match the text. The story does not flow well between panels.	The drawings are simple and sometimes do not match the text. The progression of the story is a bit confusing.	The drawings are clear and concise, complementing the text. The story flows logically throughout the panels.	The illustrations are detailed and expressive, helping to tell the story very effectively. The text and images complement each other perfectly.

